Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters
The Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

It was such a pleasure to learn that you will be able to meet with us next fall that I would be happy to arrange the time to suit your needs. The class meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2:00 to 3:15, and we deal with aspects of the policy process during the month of October. Thus any of those dates then would fit in smoothly with our schedule. But, again, I am so pleased the students will have this opportunity to hear your outstanding presentation, I'll be happy to make any adjustment to fit your schedule.

For the rest of the time of your visit, we of course want you to be the guest of the Department for cocktails and dinner - and overnight at Boar's Head if you wish. There are a number of faculty who would like the opportunity to meet you at a smaller gathering sometime during your stay if it proves possible for you to work this in. We want to tailor the time to your wishes, so just give us the instructions!

And please accept again my deep gratitude for your outstanding talk - one of the high spots of my Bicentennial Year!

With Kind Regards,

Whittle Johnston

Professor Whittle Johnston

Dear Professor Johnston:

Many thanks for your letter. I would be happy to talk as you suggest if you could give me some general idea of when you would like me to speak. It is vital that our young people understand these problems.

It was a most enjoyable evening, and you were a most attentive and responsive group.

With every good wish,

Faithfully,

Vernon A. Walters

Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director
The Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia

Dear General Walters:

I want to express again my deep appreciation for your outstanding lecture last night. I am one of those many Americans who has been appalled at the lack of balance many have shown of late in criticism of our intelligence agencies. I would hope to do all I can as one citizen to bring about a more balanced appreciation of the critical role of intelligence. To this end it would be of very great importance to us at the University if you felt you could fit in a visit next fall. We could use as the forum for your lecture my class in United States Foreign Policy, or a larger or smaller grouping, as you wish. We meet at 2:00 on Tuesdays and Thursdays, but will be happy to arrange any time convenient for you. We shall also be happy to work out any details re transportation, accommodations, etc; that you wish. If you think there is a possibility you can join us, I'll send along other details.

Please accept again my deep gratitude for that outstanding evening last night. What good heart it gives us to know the Republic is so well served!

With Kind Regards

Whittle Johnston
